FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

"A source advised on 6/20/63 that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed in New York City in Spring, 1960, under the sponsorship of certain well-known pro-Communists and 'liberals' for the announced purpose of defending the 'truth' about Cuba from distortion by Cuba's enemies. A Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the FPCC was formed in Los Angeles, California, in December, 1960, under the stimulus of the Los Angeles Local of the Socialist Workers Party (LAL-SWP). The LAL-SWP was able to dominate and control the activities of the Los Angeles chapter without difficulty until by 1962 the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) had succeeded in gaining a foothold in its executive committee. At the present time both the LAL-SWP and the SCDCP share control of the Los Angeles chapter with the latter being the more dominant of the two.

A second source advised on 6/19/63 that since early 1962 the LAL-SWP has shown diminishing interest in the Los Angeles chapter of the FPCC, recognizing that it has lost what popular appeal it formerly had, but has nevertheless managed to retain control of certain key positions in it, not wanting to have created an organization only to turn it over to the 'Stalinists' and in view of the possibility a new invasion of Cuba could revive its value to the LAL-SWP.

Both the CP and the SWP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450."

On September 18, 1963, [redacted] New York City, advised that she was in attendance at the Student Travel Rally which was held on September 15, 1963, at the Town Hall, 113 West 43rd Street, New York City.

[redacted] furnished a signed typewritten transcription of the notes she took while in attendance at this rally, which is as follows:

Corliss Lamont opened the rally and stated that he was acting as Emergency Chairman in the interest of civil liberties. Carlton Beatts, the scheduled Chairman, had withdrawn from the meeting. I. F. Stone had also withdrawn as Moderator of the meeting.

Lamont stated all students are not to be denied proper facilities. Cuban exile students wanted to debate the American students and the American students have accepted their challenge and will debate them on the proper occasion.

Lamont stated that because under civil liberties freedom to travel has become one of the basic issues and "we" stand for that right to travel even when the Government or State Department deny the right.

Lamont advised that he was there only as an individual representing himself and filling in in an emergency.

Lamont then introduced Conrad Lynn, who would be acting as Emergency Moderator of the meeting. Lynn was described as a lawyer who had been in attendance at the recent House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) hearings.

Conrad Lynn stated that it was a good feeling to have the law on your side, whereas he had been in Washington for two days, Thursday and Friday, and he found out what it means to be under the rule of a fascist chairman.

Lynn stated that some young representatives of the American people were in Washington and none of them claimed to have all the truth.

According to Lynn, one of the fundamental tenets of democracy - the right to travel, is basic to any human advance.

Lynn then stated that the audience should listen to an account by one of these young men who was called down and who went through indignities inflicted.

Philip Luce was then introduced and stated in part that the HUAC hearing proved two very distinct points. "House Un-American Activities Committee knows that we violated no law by traveling to Cuba. There are no laws forbidding travel to Cuba and they have no proof of laws having been broken. The hearings proved that violence did take place - not perpetrated by students - perpetrated by hired goons of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

"Five witnesses in an executive session refused to answer any questions and demanded open hearing." This forced the HUAC to take students into an open session who demonstrated their right to laugh at inane laws.

Luce then stated "there is more freedom in Cuba than in Louisiana and that students did not perpetrate violence and we showed Congress and House Un-American Activities Committee without question there is no law - had not violated any law."

Luce then stated that "we are going to Cuba again to prove it."

Conrad Lynn then stated "the real criminals should be brought to trial - three Southern reactionaries: Willis; Tuck (West Virginia); Cool (Texas)".

One of the students by the name of Thomas was introduced and stated "discrimination has disappeared in Cuba. Black people go to school with white people. The black man can get any job he is qualified to do."

Thomas also stated in part that punishment for discrimination in Cuba is 15 years in jail or be shot. Any person who discriminates against any man works against the revolution. Any man who thinks any other man is inferior may be tried for counter-revolutionary activities.

Thomas also stated in part that before the revolution in Cuba no black man was found on the beaches and the black men were the poor people who were the peasants.

According to Thomas all this has been changed in Cuba and that Robert Williams has his own house in Cuba and a radio program, "Radio Free Dixie".

According to Thomas, Robert Williams intends to come back to the United States because he is desirous to stand trial and be acquitted.

Thomas also stated that committees on the East and West coast are to provide publicity for Robert Williams who will return within a year.

Levi Laub was introduced and advised in part that he had met Che Guevara who is the worst critic of the regime in Cuba. Laub claimed to have asked Guevara what he liked least in Cuba and he answered that the most serious problem in Cuba today is bureaucracy.

Laub further stated that today Cuba is an under-developed country which has a wonderfully honest leadership at the top.

Al Maher was introduced and advised in part that the function of the artist in Cuba is the freedom of expression. Maher also stated that there is a shortage of books in Cuba but books that are available are of good quality with no trash.

According to Maher, the US blockage is now breaking down.

Steve Martinot was introduced and stated in part "that Cuba is a Socialist country with a new united party of revolution. The first task of Cuba is to develop its country for the good of its people and Fidel Castro is a Marxist - Leninist.

According to Martinot, Cuba has three revolutionary movements yet only one revolution.

Martinot also stated that the workers elect those workers who are best to be their candidates and the essential element in Cuba is the unity of the workers.

A person by the name of Martin then stated that his general impression of the Cuban people is that they are behind Fidel Castro and the Socialist revolution. The people are united in the defense of their country and in Cuba, political discussion is carried on by all the people.

Corliss Lamont, the Chairman, then stated in part that this meeting was on behalf of the American people and their right to travel to see and study to better cultural relations with foreign countries.

A person by the name of Jim Higgins was introduced and was described as Assistant Managing Editor of the "York, Pennsylvania, Gazette and Daily".

Higgins stated "if I were to tell what I like least about the United States we would be here all evening. What I like most about the United States - I like the kids in Birmingham. I like the 54 student teachers who went to Cuba."

Higgins stated that he was speaking for himself and not for the "York Daily".

Higgins stated in part that "we" are moving toward an open world, a united world and there is tremendous interest in progress of the Cuban revolution:

Higgins stated that "we" should raise money here in order to send students back to Cuba and that money would be used for: 1. legal defense, 2. return trip, 3. raising a fund for the family of Hector Hill who died in Cuba.

Higgins announced to the audience that he reads his editorials over radio station WBAI in New York.

At this point during the rally money was collected by committee members by passing around hats and paper cups.

A man by the name of Maxwell Geismar was then introduced and described as a literary historian and writer. Geismar stated in part that this meeting "is rightly in behalf of the United States. The terror the United States has for Cuba is somehow connected with race."

Truman Nelson, described as a writer historian, then stated that this is the revolutionary age and it is necessary for each of us now to see what's happening. The dark peoples of the world are throwing off oppressors.

Nelson also stated that "we believe students way of non-violant action against racious laws (regulations masquerading as laws). We are here to uphold law when the government breaks it. Nelson also stated that "the press tried to humiliate students in Washington."

The rally was then broken down into a question and answer period which lasted until approximately 4:25 p.m.

The rally was adjourned at 4:45 p.m.

On September 15, 1963, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed the following in the lobby of the Town Hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City prior to the start of the rally held on that date.

Many of the students who participated in the Cuba trip were acting as ushers and had arm bands on there left arm with the word "Committee" printed thereon. Marcus Gordon, Wendy Nakashima, Rhoden Smith, and Ellen Shallit were observed directing the people to their seats.

Jacob Rosen and Charles Rosen were observed directing the activities of the committee in the lobby. The persons with committee arm bands were acting as their own screening committee and requested anti-Castro persons to leave the hall. Both Jacob Rosen and Charles Rosen were observed giving refunds to those who were asked to leave before the rally started. Some of the persons asked to leave had to be ejected forcibly and refunds were not given to those persons. Fred Jerome was also observed directing activities in the lobby.

Just before the rally started Levi Laub and Philip Luce were observed sitting on the extreme left side of the stage in Town Hall.

After the rally started Arnold Indenbaum was observed in the doorway to the Town Hall checking tickets of late comers to the rally.

CORLISS LAMONT

On September 28, 1953, LOUIS F. BUDENZ testified before the United States Senate Permanent Investigations Sub Committee that EARL BROWDER the head of the Communist Party in the United States had referred to CORLISS LAMONT as one of the 'four prides' of the Communist Party, because CORLISS LAMONT was ready to cooperate with any Communist front or any Communist cause. BROWDER made this reference at a National Committee meeting of the Communist Party in the early 1940's. BUDENZ also revealed that LAMONT was a member of the Communist Party when he, BUDENZ, was a member.

"Rights", self-described as a publication of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) April and May, 1962 issue reveals CORLISS LAMONT as vice-chairman of the ECLC.

CONRAD LYNN

"The Journal News", a newspaper published in Nyack, New York, issue of Wednesday, May 8, 1963, contained an article "LYNN 'not impressed' by Congress probe." The article reveals in part that CONRAD LYNN had appeared before the House Committee on UnAmerican Activities (HCUA) on "Monday" about his trip to Cuba in 1962 which he had made in order to take a deposition from a client who had fled from his country.

The article revealed that LYNN had announced he would not "take the 5th Amendment."

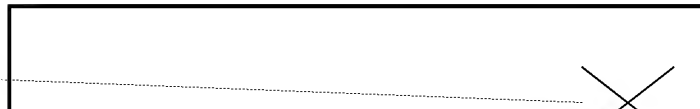

The article stated that at the hearing LYNN said that he had been a member of the young Communist League (YCL) from 1928 to 1931, and he had been a member of the Communist Party from 1934 to 1937. LYNN said he left the Communist Party because he had been expelled after a trial because of his stand during the Trinidad Oil Workers strike of February, 1937, which he said went against party line. LYNN characterized himself as "being on the left" according to the article.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

PERMANENT STUDENT COMMITTEE FOR TRAVEL TO CUBA, Formerly Known as
The Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba

"The Columbia Owl," a weekly student newspaper of Columbia University, New York City, December 13, 1962, issue, page 1, contained an article entitled "Students to Visit Cuba During Holidays." This article stated in part that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was formed October 14, 1962, by a group of students from New York City universities, the University of Wisconsin, Oberlin College, and the University of North Carolina, who stated that as students they would like a chance to see and evaluate the situation in Cuba for themselves and had received an offer of transportation and two weeks stay in Cuba from the Federation of University Students in Havana as guests of the Federation. The committee accepted the offer and applied to the United States State Department for passport validation which was refused; however, over 50 students planned to defy the State Department ban and go to Cuba.

A source advised on December 6, 1962, that during December, 1962, it was learned that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba had recently been formed by the "Progressive Labor" group.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

- "1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC). A national meeting of this organization was held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 27 and 28, 1963.

"Sherman Oaks, California
October 29, 1963

"WOMEN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION (WLA)"

"The Council of the Women for Legislative Action (WLA) held a special evening lecture at the Music Box Theatre, 7080 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California, during the evening of Monday, October 28, 1963. The guest speaker of the evening was MR. I.F. STONE, publisher of the 'I.F. STONE Weekly.'

"GUSSIE SITKIN, current head of the WLA Council, and MRS. AMELIA SLUYTER, president of the Valley Chapter of WLA, were the only WLA members seated on the stage with MR. STONE. SLUYTER urged those women in the audience who were not already members of WLA to take this opportunity to join the organization. Membership applications were available at the theatre.

"GUSSIE SITKIN made a long and glowing introduction of STONE, relating what a fine individual he is. His announced topic was 'South Viet-Nam;' however, it appeared that he devoted as much or more time to talking about Cuba.

"STONE said that most people do not even know where South Viet-Nam is located. For this reason he gave a little background about the country. He said that generally news reports are slanted. The American newspapers can not say what they want to say; but have to print what they are told to say. He spoke very little about MADAM NHU. And during the question

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

LA 100-43513

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"and answer period that followed his speech, STONE flatly refused to answer an questions about MADAM NHU; saying that he did not care to discuss the 'Dragon Lady.'

"STONE indicated that he felt Red China should be admitted to the United Nations. He said that he did not blame China for its reported aggressive attitude, which attitude he feels is based on the way the United States has treated China. MR. STONE said that we do not have to fear Russia, nor does Russia have to fear us.

"MR. STONE indicated he thinks a lot of FRANCE's CHARLES DE GAULLE; and if fact considers him the 'Man of the Day.' He also indicated that he respects U.S. Defense Secretary MC NAMARA, but does not always agree with everything he says and stands for.

"STONE feels that the South Viet-Nam problem is 'all political.'

"He said that the United States was completely inhumane with regard to Cuba. He kept returning to the Cuban problem in his talk. He said he feels very sorry for the Cuban people. The United States' action against Cuba is the most terrible, inhumane action, ever taken by one country against another.

"There was a capacity crowd present in the Music Box Theatre for this special WLA Council event. A pitch was made for I.F. STONE's Weekly. There was no literature for sale; however, copies of the Friends Committee on Legislation Action Sheet on Viet-Nam were passed out to those persons attending the meeting.

"There were no pickets or other type of opposition outside the theatre.

"During the question and answer period, MR. STONE was asked if he could attend the press conferences held by

(U) On 12/5/63, [] Source [] (protect identity), who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished to SA HENRY E. NAEHLE the following material which the informant received through the mail from the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC): (C)

1. A letter from ROCKWELL KENT, Ausable Forks, New York, dated 10/9/63, and addressed to "Dear Fellow American."

This letter states that in 1958, in the Kent-Briehl case, the Supreme Court in a 5 to 4 decision "affirmed freedom to travel abroad to be the right of every American Citizen."

This letter also states that the "Kent-Briehl case cost much to its two principals, but little as compared to what it cost the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee and its many generous friends. It was through the participation of countless public spirited American people and the devoted, self-sacrificing work of the Committee's attorney, LEONARD BOUDIN, that the right of every American to travel was won."

This letter continues that the "defense of the American students now being prosecuted for having visited Cuba has been undertaken by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee" and urges the recipient of this letter to "give your generous support toward the winning of this case, for it is of fundamental importance to the whole fabric of our Democracy."

2. An undated, and unsigned mimeographed statement which reads as follows:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

"WE THE UNDERSIGNED, believing with the United States Supreme Court that the right to travel is a part of the liberty guaranteed to all Americans by the Constitution, deplore the various restrictions placed upon individuals seeking to exercise that right.

"We feel that the 59 young Americans who traveled to Cuba in the summer of 1963 with regular passports, had a right to defy a public notice to the contrary issued by the State Department and that such action was in the best tradition of supporting our fundamental law by disobedience to unwarranted regulations.

"On September 27, 1963, a Federal Grand Jury indicted three young men for traveling to Cuba. The three who were indicted as well as the others who were not, by risking imprisonment and fines brought to the attention of the country the arbitrary and unconstitutional restrictions imposed on the American people. In doing so they were also utilizing the only means available through which the courts could affirm and protect constitutional guarantees.

"We call on our fellow Americans concerned with the survival of the Constitution to help provide the best defense possible so that the issues which these young people have raised may be properly resolved in the courts."

Report of Tenth Annual Bill of Rights Dinner

Americana Hotel - Imperial Ballroom

Dec. 13, 1963

Sponsored by Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

Meeting opened by CORLISS LAMONT who introduced Dr. ALEXANDER MIDDLEJOHN recipient of an award from President JOHNSON recently. He cut the cake commemorating 172 anniversary of Bill of Rights and 12 anniversary of ECLC.

There were approximately 1500 people present. This dinner is of importance in view of the recent tragic events, the assassination of President KENNEDY. Mr. LAMONT introduced the toastmaster.

JOHN HENRY FAULK - who won a judgement of 3.5 million dollars against "Aware" a reactionary publication. This has been reduced to $500,000. "Aware" planned to ruin his career by libeling him where it would do him the most harm. Mr. FAULK introduced the first speaker.

Mrs. CYRUS EATON - wife of Ohio farmer, industrialist. Believes in peace, travel and democracy. Born Ohio, graduate of Massar, teacher, member of Jr. League. Her topic was: "Ban The Bomb" or 2 generations of imbeciles is enough. Her name is Dr. ANN KEUDER EATON.

Article I of Bill of Rights grants freedom of speech & press. The press has been granted privilege of spreading lies faster and further than anyone including some Congressmen.

A nation that kills its own people (Negro revolt & President KENNEDY) needs to have its head examined. News that is "Fit to read" is limited.

After W W II Americans took the easy way out. Go home to family and forget the truth.

She described a typical American wife and referred to her as "Rosy the Riveter". She felt a part of an ideology during the war effort - She then became a housewife, then a mother. She eventually failed as a housewife & mother. She felt guilty because she had no fulfillment of purpose. She was the victim of a stampede of millions of lies by press, advertising agencies, etc.

We forget that America's business is "Business."

Rosy stays home to buy, buy. The advertisers write the copy.

She feels she has failed because she has fought to make the world safe for capitalism.

American females are proportionately getting less degrees than a decade ago.

If this continues the American female will rank with the most backward in the world.

The American female has been fooled once. She will not be fooled again.

Her husband "Joe" has had a daily dosage of tranquilizers in the form of "Bi-Partisan Foreign Party". You cannot challenge or question this policy.

Communism is likened unto the other woman in capitalism's togetherness.

JOE is afraid to think. He is saddled by The HUAC & S.I.S.C.; saddled by those who would impeach WARREN; saddled by the F.B.I., which is hypnotized by the Communist Party. They cannot recognize the greatest organized underworld.

On the economic side - the gold situation - if all foreign nations demanded payment we would be a bankrupt nation. We look for objective thinking instead of propaganda. The American press has misinformed the United States concerning China. We have ignored the C.I.A. and their professional rioters here and abroad.

The American Negro is achieving the impossible. He is now our teacher. JAMES BALDWIN's book carries the whole American spirit. This spirit is visualized throughout the world.

Our Negro aristocracy has accomplished its own authority. We must end this nightmare. If we wake up the American spirit can change the world. Because of the Negroes' noble spirit he is finding a following in the white people.

The noble underdog is our teacher. "The Free Press for Hire" must be dumped.

BALDWIN's book was after all, after all, after all published in The United States of America.

Dr. CLARK FOREMAN presented the Annual Tom Payne award to poet, composer and singer and speaker of civil liberties, a man who fills Carnegie Hall with his message - Bob Dillon.

He accepted with thanks for those who went to Cuba. They were young, he is young, America belongs to the young. The bald-headed should go 'away to the beaches.' He sees no color (black, white, yellow, etc.) In history books they write facts not the way people feel. His idol was W. GUTHRIE.

People have fears. Old people go away - the young should rule. He accepted this on behalf of his good friend PHILIP LUCE, who led the Cuban group. He saw in OSWALD, "the man who killed the President," quote things that are in himself. He doesn't think he would go that far but he isn't sure. (Note: later CORLISS LAMONT attempted to interpret this statement that DILLON felt a feeling of guilt as we all should in causing the assassination.)

Toastmaster FAULK introduced the next speaker, HERBERT BIDERMAN, one of the Hollywood Ten, who served time in Texarkana, Texas jail.

BIDERMAN - Mrs. EATON is inobtuse. She pulls the shrouds for the Cadavers. He complimented a new book. MARGARET HALSEY's "Pseudo-ethic". It should be pushed to the top of best sellers to join JAMES BALDWIN's book so that we may have two solid legs to stand on.

We must mature, grow up - How can we teach children we haven't got unless we first win these rights back.

Twelve years ago the S.C. ruled "Advocacy" is a crime (Smith Act). Now we are guilty if we believe something.

BIDERMAN introduced Dr. PAUL LEHMAN, for Professor of applied Christianity, Princeton and now member of Union Theological Inst. who helped to found the ECLC, 1951.

He outlined to function of E.C.L.C. now and started collection time and from time to time introduced celebrities present.

She inferred equality of attorneys is poor. The truth is that the U.S. cases are so poor.

A scroll of twenty people pledges $100 to raise money to pay LEONARD BOUDINE. Fee is started anyone pledging or donating $100 can have their name included on scroll.

CORLISS LAMONT quoted from the new edition of "Rights" re assassination of President KENNEDY.

He also tried to interpret the statement of ROBERT DILLON concerning this assassination. (DILLON was hissed and booed for his remarks). He (LAMONT) believed that DILLON wanted to say what I.F. STONE has been saying - that there is an element of violence in all Americans.
That the shame of guilt is what DILLON was attempting to say.

Miss EDITH SEGAL - poet, dancer, composer, read an original poem, "The Ballad of Four Girls and a President" concerning the killing of the four Negro children in the South and the assassination.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

J. H. FAULK - Ours is a struggle of humanity and inhumanity. Justice is injustice. This writer JAMES BALDWIN feels this. He thinks this. He writes this.
JAMES BALDWIN:

The freedom march in August, 1963, of 250,000 wanted a redress of grievances. These people wanted to tell this country of their troubles and tell of the trouble of our country. He described his emotion of feeling a prisoner upon hearing of the death of a friend, MEDGER EVERS. He described his feeling when 4 children were killed. He traced the philosophy of the "Myth of Northern Europe" upon coming to America -

- A. Killing the Indians
- B. Enslaving the Negro

Having done these things we cannot deny it - we must admit these crimes. America today is trapped in a feeling of nostalgia and pain. The so-called left and right elements are based on frames of reference which have now vanished.

The warnings of the press to the Negro movement concerning infiltration of Communist members, the warning of FBI J. EDGAR HOOVER, etc. These warnings fall on jaundiced ears.

BALDWIN cannot comprehend how Russia or Red China would gain by involvement in the Negro situation in depression days - Moscow may have seemed like a holy city. The attempt to unite black and white workers in union. The Harlem Negro had been promised by Republicans and Democrats for years. The promises of the C.P. fell on unreceptive ears. The C.P. promised too much.

J. EDGAR HOOVER has said - "Devotion to race should not superseed to established institution". BALDWIN is not sure what is meant by race. He thinks he might know what devotion means but he does definitely know what established institution means.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

As a Negro - freedom can be saved by attacking the following:

1. L. PEREZ (La.) 2. Senator EASTLAND
3. Trade Union System which places negroes at the bottom of the barrel
4. Christian churches because they have never accepted the Negroes
5. The Republican Party with its GOLDWATER.
6. The Democratic Party with its EASTLAND.

We must attack these institutions - we do not mean we have to go to Moscow or Peking for help.

It is significant that our government is concerned about citizens going to Cuba, particularly Negroes going to Cuba. Are we not mature enough to know what we are doing? Are we such poor risks to expose us to anything outside America?

If he had a choice to take his family on a vacation would he go to Havana or Miami? He would choose Havana not because he is a communist or a Castroite. He would choose it because he could stay at any hotel he wanted. His children could take a "leak" in any bathroom. Not one that was segregated.

We in America cannot pretend to be the leader of the free world. The world is smaller today. It listens to speeches by L. PERES. Any citizen should be old enough, mature enough to go anywhere in the world and come back and report on what he saw - Are we so abject that we cannot be corrupted? Are we not safer to know what is going on in Cuba, China, Vietnam?

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

He has written articles that were rejected because the magazine editors said:

"This is not for our readers."

The mass media of the press has a responsibility of dissemination of information and truth.

Freedom is a slogan. We in America are free only as we dare to be. People must protect freedom. When government tells us what to read, what to believe or with whom we may associate then that government is in great trouble.

Concerning dictators - our government doesn't disapprove of all of them, only those it cannot deal with. We back a status quo and neglect to face the inevitable revolution which is already in progress.

All works of art are flawed. There are limitations to our abilities so we cannot achieve our conceived perfection - We are human. We are limited by a world outside ourselves and a world inside ourselves.

There is a flaw in our country. We are not a country as such yet. We are trapped in a collection of motels and boy scouts.

We deny our history to ourselves. We are still dominated by the "Myth of Europe". History books portray the American Negro as a canable with a bone in his nose. This is not true. Otherwise why would America be conscious of the Negro movement.

BALDWIN says: "I have never been afraid of Russia, China or Cuba but I am terrified of this country." Apathy allows thousands of people in the deep south to perish - not only Negroes, the real victim is the poor white man, who does these things because he was told generations ago to do it. He could never allow himself to fall below the level of the Negro.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Who has divorced these white men from the reality? A handful of men on the hill and some even on Capitol Hill who have determined not to share the wealth.

We could be a sovereign people. We must assess our history. PERES, EASTLAND are not an act of God. We accept them because we are afraid to face the facts of our lives."

The real responsibility begins in the attitude of the people toward their own private lives.

In the richer countries of the world - Switzerland, Germany, England and America we find them the most inhuman. The poorer countries Spain & Italy they are more human.

The only way to survive this crisis is to accept this fact that this is not a white country. There are twenty million Negroes of all degrees & shades. It is a dillusion to think oneself as a white.

Remember in slave quarters it was not the Negro grandmothers who raped the owners.

There are millions of dollars spent each year to prepare for war which no one can survive. This is wasteful and could be used for most fruitful purposes.

Because it is Christmas let us remember that He attacked institutions; He was a revolutionary - He changed the world.

We can do that, we have the money we have the experience. We still have the hope to find the facts of our lives.

The Negro movement is complimented for its peaceful demonstrations. BALDWIN is against all forms of violence & shedding of blood.

"During his lecture Mr. STONE advocated trade with North Viet Nam, with unification of Viet Nam to come later by free elections. Felt China acting as an 'outlaw' only because she has been treated like one. Viet King of North Viet Nam not strictly a Communist organization, it was composed of several different political groups - Communist being only one of them. "Program began about 8:30 pm, and finished with a question period about 10:30 pm! Only person known to have been present was Mr. I. F. STONE, who had two body representatives from 'Women for Legislative Action by his side during program."

Documentation of Women For Legislative Action supplied by the LA Office

A source advised on 5/1/63 that the Women for Legislative Action was formed in 1952, claiming to be an independent organization dedicated to non-partisan participation in legislative and civic activities. Its position in favoring or opposing legislation usually parallels the position of the Communist Party and related groups. It also supports legislation to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Membership in the Women for Legislative Action does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

"Date of Report 1/12/63.

"On Friday 1/10/63, a meeting was held at 2 Divinity Ave., Cambridge. This meeting was held under the sponsorship of the Harvard Socialist Club. [redacted]

[redacted] arranged for the Socialist Club sponsorship.

"About eighty persons attended the meeting, some of these were 1) Steve Chase 2) Ronald Payne 3) Joe Noles 4) Gus Horowitz 5) Carol Lipman 6) Dick McBride 7) Joe McBride 8) Ted Nault 9) Les Evenchick 10) Dave Sapistine 11) Ralph Leavitt 12) Martin Nicklous 13) Levi Laub 14) Dorothy Zellner 15) Roger (LNU - a Y.S.A. member).

"The idea behind the meeting was to have each of the three speakers explain what legal defense his organization was taking and why. The speakers were 1) Ralph Leavitt, from the Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students (a Y.S.A. group) 2) Levi Laub, from the group of students that went to Cuba 3) Dorothy Zellner, from the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee.

"A fifty cent admission charge was made. Proceeds were to be divided equally between the speakers.

"A forth person, a man, was on the platform, but didn't participate in the discussion. It seemed that he could have been Dorothy Zellner's husband but no one was sure.

"The moderator was a student member of the Harvard Socialist Club.

"Dorothy Zellner spoke first. She said that her group (S.N.C.C.) was conducting a voter registration drive in the South. Many of her group she said had been the victims of police brutality, and phoney arrests. Several she said were being held in Southern jails, facing long jail terms. She asked for help for her group to raise bail money for S.N.C.C. people in jail. She painted an ugly picture of police brutality and intimidation in Southern jails.

"The second person to speak was Levi Laub, from the students that traveled illegally to Cuba last summer. He said that he and several of that group had been charged with illegal travel to Cuba. He said that they were being charged under a seldom used law that gave the State Dept. authority to suspend travel to any country. He said there had never been a case just like this, and that his group felt quite confident about a Supreme Court ruling in their favor. He asked for support for his group to raise money for their defense.

"Ralph Leavitt, the spokesman for C.A.B.S. said that his group was being prosecuted under a 'Smith Act' type law. He said the law stated as its goal the elimination of communist and communist teachings. He said that this was a law designed to control and restrict education. During the question and answer period he admitted that he was a Trotskyite and that he was in favor of a Socialist Revolution. He said that the U.S.A. didn't advocate the violent overthrow of the U. S. Govt. as long as Democracy prevailed. He asked for financial support for C.A.B.S.

"In general the audience was not sympathetic with any of the speakers except D. Zellner. Most of the questions were slightly antagonistic and directed to Levi Laub.

"There were several Anti-Castro Cubans present at the meeting.

"Martin Nicolaus [redacted] b6
[redacted] was at the meeting as a spectator. One of the anti- b7C
Castro Cubans and [redacted] got into a fight outside the lecture hall. A police officer took the pair into another room in the building for questioning.

[redacted] said that the same trio had spoken at M.I.T. on 1/9/64, in the afternoon. This meeting he said, he had arranged through the Socialist Club at that school. He said that all three had made similar speeches at that meeting, but had been received much more warmly. He said that one hundred persons had attended the M.I.T. meeting."

In conjunction with the above mentioned meeting at MIT, the following is noted.

On January 7, 1964, [redacted] MIT, Cambridge, Massachusetts, an established source, advised SA WILLIAM D. CRONIN that the MIT Socialist Club was going to sponsor a meeting at the Little Theater - Kresge Auditorium - MIT on Thursday, January 9th. The subject of the meeting was to be "Students on Trial" and speakers were to be some of the students who went to Cuba in 1963.

b7D

On January 10, 1964, [redacted] advised that approximately 150 attended the above mentioned meeting. It appeared to him that the Socialists had a good following. The remainder of the audience was made up of curious students from MIT.

There were three speakers. These speakers were introduced by an MIT student whose identity was not known to [redacted]. The speakers were - a Southern girl who "looked like a beast", name unknown to [redacted] - a male who said he was from the University of Indiana and who claimed to be under indictment, name unknown to [redacted] and LEVI LAUB.

LAUB said everything was glorious in Cuba. He was ridiculed and asked why he did not stay there. He said that the U. S. Government was a fascist regime. Under pressure from the audience LAUB admitted that he was a communist. Asked then why he referred to himself as a Socialist, he replied that it was a matter of terminology.

[redacted]
[redacted] was of the opinion that the group did not make a good impression.

It is further noted that [redacted] on 1/15/64 identified [redacted] as a member of the YSA of Boston.

~~SECRET~~DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D. C.Residence and Employment

On March 19, 1964, a Special Agent of the FBI, through a suitable pretext, ascertained that the subject resides at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and is the owner, editor and publisher of the "I. F. STONE Bi-weekly". His business office is at that address.

Statements made by Subject

The program of the 16th Annual Conference on World Affairs, held April 8 - 12, 1963, at the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colorado, reflected that the subject and JOSEPH P. MORRAY participated in a discussion entitled "Castrology" on April 11, 1963, at the University of Colorado. MORRAY, during the discussion, stated that the United States is a war monger toward Cuba. The subject, during this discussion, stated that he wanted the American Peace Corps to go to Cuba and to help rebuild that country. He wanted the State Department to negotiate with FIDEL CASTRO for Cuban sugar. He also wanted the United States to recognize CASTRO's Cuba as it exists today.

WF T-1, April 11, 1963

Concerning JOSEPH P. MORRAY, an article appeared in "Bohemia" magazine October 8, 1961, which contained the comments of JOSEPH MORAY, who was residing in Cuba. The article was accompanied by his photograph with the notation: "The Cuban Revolution" he said, "is distinguished by peculiar modalities in arriving at socialism, showing at the same time that Marxist postulates are indispensable scientific and social truths."

He pointed out that: "In my opinion, the Cuban Revolution has universal importance. I believe that it will capture the enthusiasm of the United States masses because its great results cannot be hidden permanently."

The article described MORRAY as Professor of Social Sciences in the University of Havana for almost a year. It said he left his position in the University of California for reasons of conscience. It said, he among others, had turned his back on the false reports reported in the Yankee Press; to the compulsion of authority of his own land, and by living in the "defamed Island," had given the lie to the slanders by his own Government.

The "Bohemia" according to the "Political Handbook of the World, 1962," is a weekly publication at Havana, Cuba, controlled by the Cuban Government.

On April 20, 1963, WF T-2 learned that

HERBERT APTHEKER in a project called American Institute of Marxist Studies (AIMS). APTHEKER desires to establish AIMS for the purpose of giving "Marxism a status in the United States like it has in England." APTHEKER needs some voluntary help in preparing a bibliography for the project on Marxism.

HERBERT APTHEKER, member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA) was identified as the editor of "Political Affairs" in its March, 1963 edition. "Political Affairs" is self-described as the theoretical organ of the CP, USA.

The subject spoke at a meeting of the Women's Strike For Peace at the YWCA, 29th and Chester Streets, Philadelphia, on May 10, 1963. He discussed the ban on atomic testing. He stated that the Atomic Energy Commission was making some very queer tests which were all hushed up. He claimed that one of these tests is a low level ground burst in which all fallout will be localized. He added, however, that the Russians may get it and use it and then it would be no good to us. STONE contended that if the United States signs a test ban treaty and the other side wants to cheat we could still be pretty certain that we could detect the cheating. He stated that thanks to the cold war the biggest agency in Washington is the National Security Agency which has a network that listens in all over the world. He stated, however, that the Russians also have such a network. He stated that we know where in Russia it would be possible to make underground tests and he stated that with our network we could pinpoint these tests. He added, however, that the Russians have the same capacity to pinpoint tests. STONE continued that if the United States wanted to ban atomic testing we would accept the Russian plan and if the Russians wanted to ban they would accept our plan. He stated, however, that as a matter of fact neither side can make up its mind and the military on both sides want testing and so does industry because when you are selling weapons or anything else you naturally want the latest model to sell. He stated that fear also helps the side that wants testing. Nobody trusts anybody else. The French and British distrust the United States. STONE advocated that everyone wants peace, even Congressmen. However, Congressmen get very little mail about peace and he advocated that those present send them mail about peace. He stated the peace movement must dig in for a long hard battle. In discussing the present world situation, he noted that nations grow more helpless the more power they have. STONE continued that in making economic war on Cuba the United States is breaking the Treaty of Bogota. He advocated that the United States send the Peace Corps to Cuba. He stated that if the United States resumes trade with Cuba, the Cubans will pay for the American property they took. He also advocated the demilitarization of Cuba with international guarantees against American aggression. He also contended that the United States will have to negotiate with Red China sometime. He contended that the United States should accept Red China's proposal for a nuclear-free Pacific. In a question and answer period following his talk, STONE stated that the Russians live up the treaties as they are written but the United States wants to interpret them in its own way, which of course, is not acceptable to the Russians.

WF T-3, May 28, 1963

~~SECRET~~

The subject spoke at a meeting at Pierce Hall, 16th and Columbia Road, N. W., Washington, D. C., on October 18, 1963. There was no announcement of who sponsored the meeting, but signs in Pierce Hall directing people to the meeting bore the name of the Student Peace Union. In his speech, the subject advocated withdrawing United States troops from Viet Nam. He was opposed to the present regime in Viet Nam and to the present United States administration. He said that the United States cannot force democracy on people who do not want it and who do not know what it is all about. He said that the use of guerrilla warfare against guerrillas by the use of fire, poison gas and other means does not hurt the guerrillas, but it does hurt the peasants whose crops are burned.

WF T-4, October 21, 1963

On October 28, 1963, the subject spoke at a meeting of the Women for Legislative Action (WLA) at the Music Box Theater, 7080 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, California. He discussed South Viet Nam and stated that American newspapers cannot say what they want to say but have to print what they are told to say, therefore, most people do not know even where South Viet Nam is located, according to STONE. STONE indicated that he felt Red China should be admitted to the United Nations. He said that he did not blame China for its reported aggressive attitude, which attitude he feels is based on the way the United States has treated China. He stated that we do not have to fear Russia nor does Russia have to fear us. STONE indicated that he feels that the South Viet Nam problem is "all political." He also stated that the United States is completely inhumane with regard to Cuba. He kept returning to the Cuban problem in his talk. He said he felt very sorry for the Cuban people and characterized the actions of the United States against Cuba as the most terrible inhumane action ever taken by one country against another. STONE announced that his topic was "South Viet Nam;" however, it appeared that he devoted as much or more time to talking about Cuba during his talk.

The subject attended a meeting at the Burlington Hotel, 1120 Vermont Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., on May 5, 1963. The meeting was sponsored by the ECLC to protest a hearing scheduled by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) on May 6 - 8, 1963, concerning travel to Cuba. The meeting at the Burlington Hotel was anti-HCUA. The speakers were pro-Cuban. One speaker spoke mainly of the Southern Negroes' problems and suggested that if all else failed the Negroes should fight violence with violence.

Concerning the above meeting, WF T-12 advised on May 6, 1963, that the subject introduced the speakers at the ECLC meeting at the Burlington Hotel on May 5, 1963.

The announcement for the meeting at the Burlington Hotel on May 5, 1963, showed the meeting to be under the auspices of the ECLC. The announcement was headed by the statements "What is going on in Cuba?", "Americans have the right to know", "HUAC has no right to interfere." The announcement said that I. F. STONE, Editor, would preside at the meeting. All the speakers except STONE had been subpoenaed to appear before HCUA on May 6, 1963.

(U) The subject attended a meeting at the Presidential Arms, 1320 G Street, N. W., on September 12, 1963. The purpose of the meeting was to protest the HCUA hearings held that day about travel to Cuba. Four students who had traveled to Cuba spoke. All were favorable toward Cuba and unfavorable toward HCUA. (C)

(U) [WF T-10, September 13, 1963] (C)

In December, 1963, the ECLC distributed an undated, unsigned statement about the various restrictions placed on individuals "seeking to exercise their right to travel." The statement said that 59 young Americans who traveled to Cuba in the Summer of 1963, with regular passports had the right to defy a public notice to the contrary issued by the State Department. The Statement said that since action was in the best traditions of supporting our fundamental law by disobedience to unwarranted regulations. The statement called on Americans concerned with survival of the Constitution to help provide the best defense possible so that the issues which these young people raised could be properly resolved in the court. One of the signers of this statement was "I. F. STONE, Editor, 'I. F. Stone's Weekly'."

The PSCTC is described in the appendix.

The "National Guardian," August 29, 1963, Page Seven, contained an announcement captioned "Cuba, 1963; an eye witness report." The announcement said that there would be a panel discussion at Town Hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City, on September 15, 1963. The moderator of the panel discussion was identified as I. F. STONE. The announcement said that tickets could be obtained from The Student Committee For Travel to Cuba, 421 7th Avenue, Room 201, Phone OX 5-2863.

The New York City Telephone Directory listed the ECLC at 421 7th Avenue, New York City, Telephone Number OX 5-2863.

The "National Guardian" is described in the appendix.

"The New York Times," September 14, 1963, contained an article captioned "16 more ejected at House Hearings on Travel to Cuba." The article stated that I. F. STONE withdrew on September 13, 1963, as moderator of a panel discussion to be held in Town Hall, New York, New York, on September 15, 1963, by the Student Committee for Travel to Cuba. The article said that STONE, who published the bi-weekly newsletter in Washington, D. C., said that he decided to withdraw after hearing several of the students speak in Washington on "Thursday." Their views, he said "seem to me a mixture of naivete, Negro nationalists' distortions (understandable enough in light of the Negroes anguish, but still distortion) and out-of-this-world leantism."

The "Washington Post and Times Herald," September 14, 1963, Page A4, carried the same information with the following addition: STONE also said he believes "the students performed a public service in breaking the travel ban" and it is "a joke at the expense of our country when a congressional committee regards it as unAmerican to fight for freedom to travel. LAUB said that everything was glorious in Cuba. He was ridiculed and asked why he did not stay there. He said that the U. S. Government was a Facist Regime. COMMITTEE FOR LATIN AMERICAN UNDERSTANDING also known as
INSTITUTE FOR THE IMPROVEMENT OF INTER-AMERICAN RELATIONS FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE -- WASHINGTON, D.C.

On September 21, 1961, a source advised that the Washington, D.C. Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed on that date.

On October 8, 1962, this source advised that at a 1962 meeting of the Washington Chapter of the FPCC, then known as the Institute for the Improvement of Inter-American Relations, Washington Chapter (IIAR), it was decided to change the name of the organization to the Committee for Latin American Understanding (CLAU).

The purpose of the name change was to enable CLAU to broaden its activities to include all of Latin America and make it more acceptable to persons who would be reluctant to join or engage in activities of an organization which limited its activity to support of the present government in Cuba.

On April 22, 1963, this same source advised that CLAU no longer maintains its affiliation with the FPCC in New York. It still supports its original aims and purposes, which were the aims and purposes of the FPCC, but it receives no direction or support from the FPCC in New York and does not contribute to that organization.

The source further advised on April 22, 1963 that since changing its name to CLAU, the organization has become an independent local organization with no headquarters office.

The source advised that CLAU is in existence and holding meetings as of April 19, 1963.

APPENDIXEMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE~~SECRET~~

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. The Committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'Frank Wilkinson was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 Wilkinson was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, 'I am answering no questions of this committee.' This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. Wilkinson has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.'

(Committee on Un-American Activities,
Annual Report for 1958, House Report
187, March 9, 1959, pages 34 and 35)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself 'is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans

~~SECRET~~FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. However, during the past year this source observed there has been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that today their influence is negligible.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the FPCC is located in Room 329 at 799 Broadway, New York City. According to this source, the position of National Office Director was created in the Fall of 1962 and was filled by [redacted] who now formulates FPCC policy. This source observed [redacted] has followed a course of entertaining and accepting the cooperation of many other organizations, including the CP and the SWP, when he has felt it would be to his personal benefit as well as the FPCC's. However, [redacted] has indicated to this source he has no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. [redacted] feels the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations, but not support the Cuban revolution per se.

~~SECRET~~LOS ANGELES FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

"A source advised on 6/20/63 that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed in New York City in Spring, 1960, under the sponsorship of certain well-known pro-communists and 'liberals' for the announced purpose of defending the 'truth' about Cuba from distortion by Cuba's enemies. A Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the FPCC was formed in Los Angeles, California, in December, 1960, under the stimulus of the Los Angeles Local of the Socialist Workers Party (LAL-SWP). The LAL-SWP was able to dominate and control the activities of the Los Angeles chapter without difficulty until by 1962 the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) had succeeded in gaining a foothold in its executive committee. At the present time both the LAL-SWP and the SCDCP share control of the Los Angeles chapter with the latter being the more dominant of the two.

A second source advised on 6/19/63 that since early 1962 the LAL-SWP has shown diminishing interest in the Los Angeles chapter of the FPCC, recognizing that it has lost what popular appeal it formerly had, but has nevertheless managed to retain control of certain key positions in it, not wanting to have created an organization only to turn it over to the 'Stalinists' and in view of the possibility a new invasion of Cuba could revive its value to the LAL-SWP.

Both the CP and the SWP have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450."

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists."

"The Columbia Owl," a weekly student newspaper of Columbia University, New York City, December 13, 1962 issue, Page 1, contained an article entitled "Students to Visit Cuba During Holidays." This article stated in part that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba was formed October 14, 1962, by a group of students from New York City universities, the University of Wisconsin, Oberlin College, and the University of North Carolina, who stated that as students they would like a chance to see and evaluate the situation in Cuba for themselves and had received an offer of transportation and two weeks stay in Cuba from the Federation of University Students in Havana as guests of the Federation. The committee accepted the offer and applied to the United States State Department for passport validation which was refused; however, over 50 students planned to defy the State Department and ban and go to Cuba.

A source advised on December 6, 1962, that during December, 1962, it was learned that the Ad Hoc Student Committee for Travel to Cuba had recently been formed by the "Progressive Labor" group.

"Progressive Labor," Volume II, Number 1, issue of January, 1963, Page 11, an article captioned "State Dept. Pulls Strings to Keep U. S. Students from Cuba" states that "For more information on the Cuban Trip contact the Ad Hoc Committee for Travel to Cuba, 42 St. Marks Place, New York 3, NY."

ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE

"I. F. Stone's Weekly," a newsletter publication published by Isidor Feinstein Stone, in its May 4, 1964, issue stated that the newsletter would be suspended for three weeks while Stone was on vacation. He was to take a trip abroad, hoping to report, among other things, on the water crisis in Israel and the Middle East.

The June, 1964, issue of the newsletter contained an article by Stone about Israel.

The files of the Passport Office, United States Department of State, reflect that Stone was issued passport number C562102 on July 12, 1962. The passport was not valid for travel to Albania, Cuba and those portions of China, Korea and Viet Nam under communist control. On his application for this passport dated June 25, 1962, Stone stated he was born December 24, 1907, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. His home address was listed as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and his occupation was given as newspaperman.

The files of the Passport Office, checked June 9, 1964, contained no additional information about Stone. Passport regulations indicate that Stone's passport, issued July 12, 1962, is valid for three years, and renewable for two additional years. No notification to the State Department is required for travel during the validity of the passport.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in June, 1950, that he had been acquainted with Stone for fifteen or twenty years. The source stated that Stone was not a Communist Party (CP) member when he first met him, but during the mid 1930's Stone did become a member of the CP. The source advised that he received

b7C

On June 26, 1950, a source who had been acquainted with STONE for 15 or 20 years, advised that STONE had not been a CP member when the source first met him; however, during the mid 1930's STONE did become a member of the CP. The source received information substantiating STONE's CP membership not only from CP functionaries but also from [redacted]

[redacted] The source was also advised that STONE assisted the CP by aiding in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

In a review of STONE's book, "The Hidden History of the Korean War," RICHARD H. ROVERE wrote in part as follows in the New York Post Newspaper, issue of May 11, 1952:

"Stone was an adroit stylist, a shrewd and thoughtful analyst, and a man with an incredible capacity for gathering and storing information. His politics were radical but he was not a communist....."

"I do not know what happened to deflect Stone's promising career in the forties - - but I do know that something unpleasant to contemplate did happen."

"For several years now, Stone has no longer been a promising journalist or even a moderately good one. Zest, style, and humor have departed his work, leaving it merely querulous, and it is always querulous in a certain way. The fact of the matter is that Stone's contribution to American journalism today is that of a man who thinks up good arguments for poor communist positions.."

"He is still not a communist. Every so often, in a peculiar ritual that might be described as the anti-genuflection, he says something that no communist under Party discipline would dare to say - that there is not much free speech in Russia, for example; that Trotskyists should not be denied their civil rights. It is, apparently, a gesture intended to show his friends, his readers, and perhaps himself that he is underentaking his extentions of the Soviet line as a free agent."

"A free agent he unquestionably is, but he uses his freedom in every decisive instance to plead the communist case and to undermine the anti communist case. His performances are not compulsory, but they are manifestly compulsive....."

In September, 1960, the files of the U. S. Supreme Court reflected that J. F. STONE, Washington, D. C., was among the signers of an Amicus Curiae Brief favoring the legal position of the CP in the case of the CP vs. Subversive Activities Control Board.

The Binghamton, New York, "Evening Press" newspaper 12/9/61, contained an article concerning STONE's appearance in Binghamton to speak. Instead of his scheduled speech, he "blasted" an article which appeared in the "Evening Press" criticizing his views that "communists aren't dangerous." The article printed a list of "leftist - labeled organizations" with which STONE had been associated or had spoken before. The list was contained in a document issued by HCUA. STONE said he was not ashamed of his associations with the listed organizations. He said that some of the speeches mentioned in the article were given 25 years ago, adding that "If they had bothered to call me, I would have given them some more recent ones."

The "Yale Daily News," student newspaper at Yale University, in its issue of 3/16/62, reported on a speech by STONE at the Yale Law Forum on 3/15/62. The article stated STONE called for a new magnanimous policy toward the Cuban communists. He admitted his arguments were based on "a background of sympathy for CASTRO and the Cubans."

On 10/28/63, the subject spoke at a meeting in Hollywood, California, and, although his subject was Viet Nam, he kept returning to the Cuban problem during his talk. He said he felt very sorry for the Cuban people and characterized the actions of the U. S. against Cuba as the most terrible, unhuman action ever taken by one country against another.

WFO 100-22286

"July 23, 1964

"A meeting sponsored by the Women Strike for Peace (WSP) and the Washington Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (WCSNP) was held on the evening of 7/22/64, at the First Congregational Church, 10th and G Streets, N.W., Washington, D.C. This meeting was chaired by A.J. Muste and featured David Dellinger and I. F. Stone as speakers.

(U) "Approximately 200-225 people were present including the following: Dave and Selma Rein, Florence Forer, Alice Trigg, Casey Gurewitz, Edith Villastrigo, Burt Felter, Ann Ricks, Lola Boswell, Mary Holmgren, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Gottlieb, Hal and Lois Witt, Abe Bloom, Ethel Weissner, Sam Abbott, George Abbott, Irving Winik, Philip Tipperman and Fred Samuelson. (C)

(U) "During the meeting Muste made a plea for funds, and a total of $162.22 was collected. Of this amount $44 was given to the WSP for expenses, and $28 to the WCSNP for the same reason. Ten dollars was paid to the janitor of the church, and the remainder was given to Muste and Dellinger to cover their expenses and as a fee. (C)

"Dellinger was the first speaker and was introduced by Muste as an editor of 'Liberation' magazine and as one of the few reporters allowed to go to Cuba by the Department of State. Dellinger presented his observations of Cuba based on his visit there. He said he was impressed by the attitude of the people, in that they were not afraid of what he saw. He said he was met by a young couple who told him that they would guide him if he so desired, but that he was free to go anywhere he wished. He had freedom of movement and not a controlled tour.

"Dellinger also said he could understand why a lot of Cubans fled to the United States. They had been under the rule of Batista and could not comprehend the revolution. In their ignorance of what Fidel Castro was trying to do for Cuba, they came to the United States. Dellinger also said that people still in Cuba, former land and business owners from whom Castro confiscated property, are allowed open criticism of the agrarian reform and the taking over of businesses as long as they do not criticize the revolution itself.

"I. F. Stone was the next speaker, and presented his views on how the United States should act toward Cuba. He emphasized that we must start negotiations with Cuba and resume normal relations. Stone also said that the Cuban refugees in the United States should be returned to Cuba where they would be given jobs as Cuba needs technicians and skilled workers.

"Stone also advocated sending Peace Corps workers into Cuba to help with the sugar crop and other agricultural products. He said that it is possible that a refugee group can invade Cuba and gain a foothold, but that this would only lead to a civil war and would probably necessitate United States intervention. He said that if this is the case we will have another situation similar to Viet-Nam on our hands."

This memorandum has been compared with the original statement and it is correct in substance.

All necessary action which should be taken in connection with this information has been taken.
